➔ Are you interested in being part of an evening fire show? Yes No

- Busker selection is done via volunteer committee – they review everything you send. It's VERY IMPORTANT to provide promotional materials such as videos, photos, CDs, press kits – because it can be very difficult for our committee to get a feel for your act without actually being able to see your performance. (Please note that DVD is best)

Please check which of the following you are enclosing: (submitted materials become the property of the Kingston Buskers Rendezvous)

Video/DVD _____ Audio Cassette/CD _____ Press package _____
Photos _____ Other (specify) _____

Performing Name:.....

- Number of performers: _____

Please list names of all performers (*required):

- Other performance experience (list most recent first)

- Are there special requirements for your performance (i.e. space, power...)?
Please note – power and noise levels are of great concern (esp. musical groups/performers), please consider your need for amplification. We can assist with obtaining a power supply but we do not provide it.

- Name your performance surfaces (i.e. grass, concrete, create your own, all of above...)

☛ Performers from outside Kingston and area are welcome to apply for complimentary accommodations at Queen's University while in Kingston

Accommodations required? Yes

If yes, # of rooms required? _____

If yes, for which nights:

Wednesday, July 9th Thursday, July 10th Friday, July 11th

Saturday, July 12th Sunday, July 13th

Name(s) of each person requiring accommodation (rooms have a double bed – please indicate if you wish to share a room)

Please note: each applicant must provide a promotional package to accompany the application form. DVD footage is the best way to introduce our Selection Committee to your performance style. Afterall, how can we tell that we NEED you to perform at the Kingston Buskers Rendezvous, if we haven't seen what you can do?!? Photos are also a great way to assist us in promoting your visit to Kingston.
